- 1.2 The Inventory shall be segmented as per the detailed marketing and sponsoring rights set forth in the BCL Club Manual and based on the following general principles:
- 1.2.1 All Clubs will follow the same rules, and the same Inventory per Club will be granted to the Organiser.
- 1.2.2 The Inventory shall be allocated as follows:
- a) Clubs will own and manage the whole Inventory in the Qualification Rounds, under the condition that Clubs will limit the visibility on TV during BCL games of brands (with the exception of the main sponsors and brands included in the playing uniform of the Clubs) that could be reasonably deemed direct competitors of BCL and/or of BCL Sponsors with exclusivity granted in their category, as appreciated by the Organiser on a case-by-case basis.
 - b) The allocation of sponsoring rights between the Organiser and Clubs will follow the same rules for the Regular Season and the Play-Offs and will follow, in principle, a 50% Clubs – 50% Organiser split.
 - c) For the Final Four games and the Final Four event itself, all sponsoring rights will be owned and commercialized exclusively by the Organiser, with the exception of the main sponsors and brands included in the playing uniform of the Clubs. In the event that a Club wishes to use a different playing uniform from the one used in the Regular Season and the Play-Offs (including among others colours, number of sponsors, size of logos, brands of the sponsors, etc.), such Club shall request the written approval by the Organiser at least ten (10) days prior the first game day of the Final Four.

- 1.3.1 BCL Sponsors will be the primary partners of the Clubs for all the BCL games, with Clubs reserving the right to contract with additional partners. The Clubs shall agree to a minimum level of rights for such Sponsors and shall undertake that the rights offered by Clubs to their additional partners do not compromise the BCL Sponsors’ rights, especially in the use of the allocated inventory and, if agreed, in the category exclusivity.
- 1.3.2 BCL Sponsors shall have the right to use the Clubs’ name and marks in advertising and promotional campaigns and other intellectual property rights as agreed by the Organiser.
- 1.3.3 The rights allocated to BCL Sponsors will be granted to BCL Sponsors in generic terms for all the concerned Venues, differentiating per competition phase, and in some cases (e.g. Hospitality) subject to availability in the given venue. Some given rights would generate additional costs to BCL Sponsors, in the event that such BCL Sponsors decided to activate them.

1.3.4 BCL Sponsor categories

- a) The Organiser will reserve certain product categories for the exclusive use by the BCL Sponsors (with the exception of a) partners in the playing uniform of the Clubs, b) name or denomination of Clubs and c) naming of the given hosting Venue) and communicate them to the Clubs. At the time of publication of these Competition Regulations, the following product categories are exclusively reserved to the Organiser:

2.2 Non-availability

In case of reasons that are considered “ordinary” (business, family travel, etc.) an advance notice of at least four (4) weeks is necessary. For reasons that are considered “extraordinary” (e.g. injury), officials must inform the RC as soon as the reason is known to them.

Referees may not officiate a game with an injury or other health problem.

2.3 Confirmation

Nominations will be sent by email to the respective National Federations of the Officials, in principle three (3) weeks before the game in question. The National Federations have to confirm the nomination or request that it be cancelled, by email within forty-eight (48) hours from receipt.

Nominations for games of the Play-Offs will be made as soon as the games are known.

2.4 Cancellation

Reasons for the cancellation of a nomination can be an injury, other health problem, non-availability or bad performance of an Official.

In any event, the RC has the discretion to cancel nominations at any time without giving reasons, in particular for bad performance in a previous game.

2.5 Travel

2.5.1 Travel and Documents

- 8.2 The Single Judge is exclusively competent to impose disciplinary measures in the first instance, subject to the provisions of article 8.3 of this Code.
- 8.3 The Single Judge's competence extends also to the Final Four, unless an Ad-hoc Judge is appointed by the Organiser, in which case the Ad-hoc Judge shall be exclusively competent to impose disciplinary measures during the Final Four. His competence is limited to the period of the Final Four and he cannot impose disciplinary measures extending further to the end of the Final Four. For this reason, he must transmit to the Single Judge, within three (3) days from the end of the Final Four a detailed report of the facts and circumstances of the offence, together with all the official documents and evidence necessary for a complete evaluation.
- 8.4 The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) is exclusively competent to impose disciplinary measures in the second and final instance.

9. Disciplinary Procedure

It may authorize the use of telephone or video conference. Proceedings shall be conducted in English unless otherwise decided by the competent BCL body.

- 9.4 Any person may provide to the Single Judge or the Ad-hoc Judge information relating to a possible violation of this Code by another person. Notices to the Single Judge or the Ad-hoc Judge may take place only through the Organiser. However, unless allowed by the competent BCL body as a witness or expert, no person other than the accused person may participate in disciplinary proceedings under this Code.
- 9.5 All persons under BCL's jurisdiction are obliged to comply with a summons to appear as a witness. Anyone failing to comply with a summons may be sanctioned in accordance with this Code. The competent BCL body may take due account or even draw adverse inference (the latter only if mentioned together with the summons) of any refusal to appear at a hearing and/or provide evidence on the part of a party, a party's representative or a witness.
- 9.6 Parties shall be responsible for and bear the expenses of their representatives, experts, witnesses, legal counsel, etc.
- 9.7 The competent BCL body shall evaluate the evidence, take into consideration the specific conditions under which the events occurred, the previous conduct of the person(s) concerned and generally all the circumstances in order to determine whether and to what extent a disciplinary measure is required.
- 9.8 Proceedings before the Organiser, the Single Judge and the Ad-hoc Judge shall be free of charge. However, if the competent BCL body decides that a hearing shall be organized under this Code, it may make the organization of such hearing dependent upon one or more of the parties paying to the Organiser reasonable administrative costs.
- 9.9 The competent BCL body will issue a decision which shall include a summary of its findings. The decision will provide sufficient information or a reference to the provisions applicable to the appeal process, if any. Decisions on Administrative Offences may be delivered without reasons.
- 9.10 Decisions issued in accordance with this Code may be published on the BCL official website and/or the official BCL publications.
- 9.11 Members of the competent BCL bodies and the staff of the Organiser are not liable for any actions or failures to act in connection with disciplinary proceedings, except for cases of serious negligence or unlawful intent.
